Subal Chandra Dawn versus
The State of West Bengal & Anr.

Mr. Pritam Choudhury For the appellant.

Learned advocate appearing on behalf of the appellant is present.

This is an application for special leave to appeal with regard to judgment and order dated 20.05.2023 passed by learned Judicial Magistrate, 4th Court, Bankura in connection with Case No. 635C/2015 under Section 138 of the Negotiable and Instrument Act whereby learned Magistrate acquitted the accused under Section 248 (1) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Having heard the learned advocate appearing on behalf of the appellant as well as considering the judgment and order passed by the learned Magistrate where there is scope for reappraisal of evidence, the Special Leave Petition filed within time stands allowed.

Thus, leave is granted to the appellant to file appeal within the statutory period.

Accordingly Special Leave Petition stands disposed of.
