Mr. Sanjib Bandyopadhyay
...for the petitioner

A direction to secure expeditious disposal of an injunction application filed in Title Suit No.206 of 2022, of learned Civil Judge (Senior Division), 2nd Court, at Baruipur, South 24 Parganas, is the ultimate relief sought for in this case.

Admittedly, the injunction application could not be taken up for a Caveat being lodged by Caveators/opposite parties.

As per submission disclosed by the petitioner, the Caveators to the injunction application have already entered their appearance and furnished written objection against the injunction application.

No other point is raised requiring address by this Court.

In view of the nature of order proposed to be made in this case, no prior notice is considered to be necessary.

Service upon the opposite parties stands dispensed with.

Accordingly, learned Civil Judge (Senior Division), 2nd Court, at Baruipur, South 24 Parganas, is requested to ensure expeditious disposal of the injunction application in Title Suit No.206 of 2022, subject to the suitability and convenience of the court below, providing sufficient opportunity of hearing to either of the parties to this case, but without granting any unnecessary adjournment, unless it is extremely unavoidable, preferably within twelve (12) weeks from the date of communication of this order to the court below.

With this observation/direction, the revisional application stands disposed of.

Petitioner is directed to make communication of this order to the learned court below as well as to the opposite parties and their learned advocate in the court below.

Urgent certified photostat copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties as expeditiously as possible on compliance of all necessary formalities.
