TAPAN NANDI
VS
STATE OF WEST BENGAL & ORS

Mr. Amitesh Banerjee
Mr. Tarak Karan

...for the State.

The learned advocate for the State respondents submits that the writ petition has become infructuous as the tender process which has been challenged, has reached its logical conclusion upon completion of the work. The tender was for a period of one year and nothing remains to be decided in the writ petition.

Yet, as the petitioner is not present in court and no accommodation is prayed for, let the matter be dismissed for default.

Interim order, if any, stands vacated.
