..... for de facto complainant

Learned Counsel for the petitioner submits he had no intention to murder the victim. There was a civil dispute between them. He prays for bail.

Learned Counsel for the State opposes the prayer for bail.

Learned Counsel for the de facto complainant submits date has been fixed for consideration of charge.

We have considered the materials on record. Petitioner is the son of the landlord. He assaulted the victim with a chopper on his head. Injury is grievous. In view of nature and situs of injury we are not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner at this stage.

The application for bail is, thus, rejected.

We request the trial court to consider framing of charge at the earliest without granting unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties.
