

05.10. 2023
item No.3
n.b.
ct. no. 551

FMA 3387 of 2013

The New India Assurance Co. Ltd.
Vs.
Tapan Paul & Ors.

Mr. Saibalendu Bhowmik,
.....for the appellant
Mr. L. M. Ghosh,
.....for the respondents.

The matter appears for correction.

It was mentioned on behalf of the New India Assurance Co. Ltd./appellant.

Learned advocate for the appellant submits that the entire awarded amount has been deposited with this Court initially before filing of the appeal of Rs.25,000/-, thereafter during the pendency of this appeal of Rs.2,00,000/-. The awarded amount was not enhanced. The deposited amount with the Registrar General, High Court, Calcutta must have carried some interest. So, the necessary order may be passed.

Heard the learned advocate and perused the original challans. Considering the submission of the learned advocate and on perusing the original challans, it appears to be that the Insurance Company has already deposited the awarded amount, which must be carried some interest. The claimant/respondent is at liberty to withdraw the same amount along with accrued interest.

After such receipt, the office of the learned Registrar General, High Court, Calcutta shall calculate the remaining amount of award to be deposited by the Insurance Company. After such calculation, the Insurance Company is directed to deposit the same within eight weeks.

The instant order be made a part of the order/judgment dated 13.9.2023. Remaining portion of the judgment would be remain as same.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.

(Subhendu Samanta, J.)