C.O. No. 3029 of 2023

Arijeet Doss Mullick

Versus

Tea Packers (India) Pvt. Ltd. & Anr.

Mr. Lalratan Mandal

...for the Petitioner.

The petitioner is the plaintiff No.1 in Ejectment Suit No.4 of 2019, which is pending before the learned Judge, 13th Bench, City Civil Court at Calcutta.

The petitioner submits that three applications are pending.

The petitioner prays for expeditious disposal of the pending applications.

Considering the submissions, the Court is of the view that the prayer of the petitioner is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite parties.

Under such circumstances, the revisional application is disposed of with a direction upon the learned court below to dispose of the applications within a period of six months from the next date fixed, according to the seriality as the court thinks fit, independently and strictly in accordance with law, upon granting adequate opportunity to the respective parties to contest the same. Unnecessary adjournments shall not be granted to any of the parties.

This Court has not gone into the merits of the applications.

A copy of the revisional application along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite parties within a week.

The revisional application is, thus, disposed of.

There will be, however, no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the basis of the server copy of this order.
