

Item No.219
13.09.2023
Court. No. 19
GB

C.O. 3350 of 2022

Smt. Sandhya Karmakar
Vs.
Sri Sudhakar Pati

Mr. Debasis Kar

...for the Petitioner.

Liberty is granted to the petitioner to correct the petition.

By this application, the petitioner/plaintiff seeks expeditious disposal of Ejectment Case No.38 of 2006, which is pending before the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division) at Barrackpore.

It is submitted that no interim applications are pending.

Considering the submissions, the Court is of the view that the prayer of the petitioner is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties and hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite party.

The revisional application is disposed of with a direction upon the learned court below to dispose of the ejectment case within a period of one year from the next date fixed. Adequate opportunity shall be granted to the parties to contest the same.

This court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the case. The learned court shall proceed independently and in accordance with law.

A copy of the revisional application, along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite party and/or the learned advocate contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite party in the learned court below.

The revisional application is accordingly disposed of.

There shall be no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
