C.O. No. 3691 of 2023
Mussamat Rehana Begum
Vs.

M/s. Laxmi Vayaapar Private Limited & ors.

Mr. Ashis Kumar Dutta

.....for the petitioner.

The petitioner prays for expeditious disposal of Suit No. 14 of 2015, which is pending before the learned Wakf Tribunal, West Bengal. It is submitted that the suit has been dragging for a long time and at present, cross-examination of the DW-2 is going on.

The prayer of the petitioner is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite parties.

The revisional application is disposed of with a direction upon the learned Wakf Tribunal, West Bengal to dispose of the suit within a period of six months from the next date fixed. Adequate opportunity shall be granted to the parties to contest the same.

This court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the suit. The learned tribunal shall proceed independently and in accordance with law.

A copy of the revisional application along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite parties and/or the learned advocate contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite parties in the learned court below, within a week.

The revisional application is accordingly disposed of.

There shall be no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
