Court. No. 19
GB

C.O. 3769 of 2023

Sri Ramesh Hait
Vs.
Sri Prabir Kumar Mukhopadhyay

Mr. Animesh Paul

...for the Petitioner.

The petitioner prays for expeditious disposal of three applications, filed in connection with Title Suit No.331 of 2019, which is pending before the learned Civil Judge (Senior Division), Serampore, Hooghly.

Considering the submissions, the Court is of the view that the prayer of the petitioner is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties and hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite party.

The revisional application is disposed of with a direction upon the learned court below to dispose of the applications within a period of four months from the next date fixed. Adequate opportunity shall be granted to the parties to contest the same.

This court has neither expressed any opinion on the merits of the suit nor on the merits of the applications. The learned court shall proceed independently and in accordance with law. No unnecessary adjournment shall be given to either of the party.

A copy of the revisional application, along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite party and/or the learned advocate contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite party in the learned court below.

The revisional application is accordingly disposed of.

There shall be no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
