Rohitash Kumar Mittal
Vs.
The State of West Bengal & Anr.

Mr. Pinak Kumar Mitra
... For the petitioners

Ms. Jyoti Singh
... For the opposite party no.2

1. Learned advocate appearing on behalf of the parties to this revisional application filed one joint compromise application under Section 320(6) of the Code of Criminal Procedure read with Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure with a prayer for passing necessary order pursuant to the compromise between the parties.

2. This revisional application originally filed with a prayer for quashing the proceeding in connection with Hare Street Police Station Case No.203 of 2013 dated 29th March, 2013 under Sections 120B/420/341/323 of the Indian Penal Code corresponding to GR Case No.1226 of 2013 pending before the learned Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, Calcutta. Dispute between the parties arose during commercial transaction and after investigation of the case, charge sheet was also submitted. In the meantime, both the parties to this case compromise all the disputes between the parties by executing a settlement agreement.

3. Given the facts and circumstances along with the submission advanced on behalf of the parties, I find no reason to stand in the way of compromise.

4. As a sequel, proceeding in connection with Hare Street Police Station Case No.203 of 2013 dated 29th March, 2013 under Sections 120B/420/341/323 of the Indian Penal Code corresponding to GR Case No.1226 of 2013 pending before the learned Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, Calcutta, stands quashed.

5. The revisional application stands disposed of accordingly.

6. All connected applications are also disposed of.

7. Interim order, if any, stands vacated.

8. Let a copy of this order be communicated forthwith to the Court of the learned Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, Calcutta for information.

9. Criminal Section is directed to supply certified copy of this order, if applied for, upon compliance of necessary formalities.
