...for the Petitioner.

The petitioner is the wife in Matrimonial Suit No.155 of 2016, which is pending before the learned Additional District Judge, 1st Court at Barasat. The petitioner prays for expeditious disposal of the matrimonial suit.

It is submitted that no application for maintenance pendente lite had been filed. The suit is at the stage of agrument.

This Court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the suit. An order of expeditious disposal enures to the benefit of all the parties and hence this revisional application need not be served upon the opposite party before its disposal. The prayer is innocuous.

Under such circumstances, this Court directs the learned Additional District Judge, 1st Court at Barasat to dispose of suit within a period of three months from the next date fixed, upon giving adequate opportunity to the opposite party to contest the same.

The learned court below shall proceed in accordance with law and independently, without granting unnecessary adjournments to either of the parties.

Accordingly, the revisional application is disposed of.

Petitioner is directed to serve a copy of the revisional application upon the opposite party, along with a server copy of this order.

However, there will be no order as to costs.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties on priority basis.
