Chowdhury Manju
Vs.
Axis Bank

The appellant is not represented, nor any accommodation is prayed for on behalf of the appellant.

The appeal is defective since 29th December, 2022. There are two defects reported by the Stamp Reporter, namely:-

- 1) Delay of 47 days.
- 2) Deficit court fees of Rs.420/-.

We have seen the report of the Stamp Reporter dated 10th February, 2023 and the order of the Registrar Administration (L&OM) dated 6th January, 2023. It appears from the order of the Registrar Administration (L&OM) that none had appeared on behalf of the appellant on that date and no attempt has been made to remove the defects including the payment of deficit court fees as pointed out by the Stamp Reporter. The time to put in the deficit court fees has expired in the meantime. No application for condonation of delay has been filed.

Under such circumstances, the appeal is time-barred and stands dismissed.

In view of dismissal of the appeal, the connected applications also stand dismissed.

Interim order, if any, stands vacated.

L.C.R., if arrived, be sent down to the appropriate Court.
