In Re: Sabir Ali @ China @ Chena

... .. Petitioner

Mr. Avik Ghatak
Mr. Fahad Imam
Ms. Bushra Feroz

... .. for the petitioner

Mr. Shibaji Kumar Das

... .. for the State

1. It is submitted on behalf of the petitioner that he is in custody for about two years and three months. It is further submitted there is inordinate delay in trial. Accordingly, he prays for bail.
2. Learned Advocate for the State opposes the prayer for bail and submits only one witness has been examined in part.
3. We have considered the materials on record. Though petitioner is in custody for over two years, only one witness has been examined in part. There is no possibility of trial concluding in the near future. Under such circumstances, we are of the opinion petitioner has been able to make out a case of breach of his fundamental right to speedy trial and he is entitled to bail on this score. Bail prayer on the ground of inordinate delay in trial is not fettered by restrictions under Section 37 of the NDPS Act. Reference in this regard may be made to Rabi Prakash vs. The State of Odisha¹.

4. Therefore, the accused/petitioner, namely Sabir Ali @ China @ Chena, be released on bail upon furnishing bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only), with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the learned Judge, Special Court under the NDPS Act-cum-Additional District Judge, 1st Court, Barrackpore, North 24-Parganas subject to condition that the said petitioner shall appear before the trial court on every date of hearing until further orders and shall not intimidate witnesses or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever or commit similar offences in future.
5. In the event he fails to appear before the trial court without any justifiable cause, the trial court shall be at liberty to cancel his bail automatically without reference to this court.
6. The application for bail, thus, stands allowed.
