... .. for the petitioner

Mr. Angshuman Charkaborty

... .. for the State

1. It is submitted on behalf of the petitioner that he is in custody for about two years and nine months. It is further submitted there is inordinate delay in trial. No witnesses have been examined till date. Accordingly, he prays for bail.
2. Learned Advocate for the State opposes the prayer for bail.
3. We have considered the materials on record. Though narcotics i.e. 1.5 ltrs. of codeine mixture was recovered from the petitioner, there is very slow progress in trial. Delay in the matter cannot be attributed to the petitioner. Under such circumstances, we are of the opinion petitioner has been able to make out a case of breach of his fundamental right to speedy trial and he is entitled to bail on this score. Bail prayer on the ground of inordinate delay in trial is not fettered by restrictions under Section 37 of the NDPS Act. Reference in this regard may be made to Rabi Prakash vs. The State of Odisha<sup>1</sup>.
