The petitioner no. 1 claimed to be widow of one Pema Tamang, since deceased who was employed as an Assistant Teacher at Tindharia High Madrasah, District – Darjeeling. The deceased employee had died in harness on 28.9.2021 as would be evident from the relevant Death Certificate at page 12 to the writ petition. The Pension Payment Order was issued by the concerned respondent on 24.01.2023. The petitioners had received Pension and gratuity under the Pension Payment Order on

The petitioner now claims interest for the delayed payment of the said gratuity and arrear pension on and from 29.9.2021.

Mr. Barman, learned counsel appears for the State.

It is trite that, the pension, which is lawfully payable to an employee is its property and if there is any delay in making such payment and the disbursement thereof in favour of such employee, such an employee is eligible and entitle to receive interest.

In view of the above, the respondents and or the Director of Pension, Provident Fund and Group Insurance and the concerned Treasury Officer are directed to pay interest on the gratuity and arrear pension @ 8% per annum on and from the date of death of the husband of the petitioner no.1 till the date of actual payment being received by the petitioner in terms of the pension payment order.

The entire exercise as directed above, shall be carried out and completed positively by the respondents and or the Director of Pension, Provident Fund and Group Insurance and the concerned Treasury Officer within a period of eight weeks from the date of communication of this order. In default, the said arrear amounts and the entitlement of the petitioner shall carry an additional interest of 2% per annum till the date the petitioner actually receives the same.

Since affidavits are not called for, the allegations made in the writ petition are deemed not to have been admitted by the respondents.

On the above terms, this writ petition being WPA 844 of 2023 stands disposed of, without any order as to costs.

Photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be furnished expeditiously.
