In Re: - An application for bail under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 in connection with New Jalpaiguri Police Station Case No. 1266 of 2022 dated 02.12.2022 under Sections 21(c) of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985. Charge-sheet No. 375 of 2023 dated 25.05.2023, submitted under Section 21(c) of the NDPS Act, 1985. NDPS Case No. 133/2022.

And

In the matter of: - Rajkumar Ram

...petitioner.

Ms. Pratibha Ray, Adv.

...for the petitioner.

Mr. Aditi Shankar Chakraborty, Ld. APP,
Mr. Sourav Ganguly, Adv.

...for the State.

Admittedly, commercial quantity of contraband items was recovered from the possession of the petitioner. However, the petitioner says that the Memo. of Arrest is irregular. There is no signature of any member of the family of the person arrested or a respectable member of the locality where the arrest is made against column no.8(II) of the Memo. of Arrest. This is a mandatory requirement as pronounced by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of D.K. Basu – Vs. – State of West Bengal reported in AIR 1997 Supreme Court 610. Section 41B of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 also mandates that Memo. of Arrest shall be witnessed by such a person. This is a gross illegality which entitles the petitioner to bail.

We have seen the material in the case diary including the Arrest Memo. Indeed, column no. 8(II) is blank.

Accordingly, we are constrained to hold that the petitioner has been able to overcome the restriction in Section 37 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985. We, therefore, allow the petitioner's prayer for bail by also considering that charge-sheet has been filed after completion of investigation and that the petitioner is in custody since December, 2022.

Accordingly, we direct that the petitioner, namely, Rajkumar Ram, shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.20,000/- with two registered sureties of like amount each, subject to the satisfaction of the learned Judge, Special Court (under NDPS Act) Jalpaiguri, on condition that the present accused/petitioner shall appear before the learned trial Court on each date of substantive hearing subject to the provisions of Section 317 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, and shall not leave the jurisdiction of the learned trial Court unless such condition has been relaxed by the learned trial Court.

In the event the petitioner fails to adhere to any of the conditions stipulated above without any justifiable cause, the learned trial court shall be at liberty to cancel the petitioner's bail in accordance with law without further reference to this Court.

Observations made in this order are tentative and only for the purpose of disposing of this bail application.

The application for bail being CRM (NDPS) 532 of 2023 is thus disposed of.
