In The High Court at Calcutta
Circuit Bench at Jalpaiguri
Appellate Side

W.P.A. No. 2738 of 2023

Sanu Subba
Versus
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Anirban Chakraborty

...for the Petitioner.

Mr. Pretom Das,
Mr. Anirban Banerjee

...for the State.

Affidavit of service is taken on record.

The son of the petitioner was an Assistant Teacher of a High School, District-Darjeeling, who died on 01.06.2021 while he was in service. The pension Payment Order was issued on 11.01.2023 and the petitioner and another received the gratuity and arrear pension on 12.04.2023.

The grievance of the petitioner is that interest on the delayed payment of gratuity and arrear pension has not been paid.

It is now settled law that pension and gratuity amount is to be released to the retired employee immediately upon retirement and in case of delay in releasing the pension and gratuity amount, the retired employee is entitled to get interest.

Similar orders have already been passed by this Court, by which families of employees, who died-in-harness, were granted interest for delayed payment of gratuity and arrear pension.

It is settled law that the family of an employee has the right to receive the death benefits urgently. It is a valuable right and non-payment would attract interest.

The Director of Pension, Provident Fund & Group Insurance, Government of West Bengal as also the concerned Treasury Officer are directed to pay interest @ 8% per annum on the gratuity and arrear family pension amount from the date of entitlement till the actual date of disbursement.

Such payment is to be made within three months from the date of communication of the certified copy of this order to the concerned authorities.

Needless to mention, before any such disbursement is made, the disbursing authority shall satisfy himself about the genuineness of the claim and verify the signature and identity of the claimant who has approached this court and also ascertain if there is any other claimant as per the PPO and the proportionate share of each in the interest to be computed.

With the aforesaid observation and directions, this writ application stands disposed of.

There will, however, be no order as to costs.

Urgent Photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for be given to the petitioner on priority basis.
