The Court : It is submitted by the award-holder that they have been unable to effect service on the award-debtor.

The Affidavit of Service which has been filed as far back as on August, 2023 suggests that though the items have been despatched there has been no receipt till date.

The award-holder has failed to take any steps in his matter. This execution application has been pending since, 2015. Repeated orders have been passed from time to time and the award-holder has been unable to effect service on the judgment-debtors.
