CORAM : ARUN R. PEDNEKER, J.
DATED : 14/03/2023

PER COURT :

1. By way of present writ petitions, the petitioners challenge the order passed by the respondent authority granting compensation to the private respondents.

2. Mr. G.R. Syed, learned counsel for the petitioners submit that the petitioners are the owners of the land which are acquired by the respondent authority and civil suit is pending between the parties and the compensation matter ought to have referred to Land Tribunal. The learned counsel for the petitioners further submits that, however, the authorities have granted compensation to the respondents and that the respondents have also withdrawn the compensation.

3. Mr. P.D. Suryawanshi, learned counsel appearing for private respondents submits that the respondents are owners of the acquired lands and are in possession of the acquired property and that they have filed suit for injunction against the petitioners and the said suit is also decreed.

4. In view of the aforesaid submissions, it appears that as far as the present acquisition proceedings are concerned nothing survives in the matters and the present writ petitions can be disposed of with liberty to the petitioners to approach the civil court or any other forum and get their rights adjudicated for such reliefs as may be available in law to the petitioners.

5. In view of the same, the writ petitions are disposed of with aforesaid liberty.
