SANJAY A. DESHMUKH, JJ.
DATE : AUGUST 25, 2023

ORDER :-

Learned AGP informed that the State does not require the petitioner's land.

2. The petitioner himself relies on the panchnama dated 08.05.2023 suggesting that the petitioner is in possession of the land. He even admits the same before this Court right now. According to learned counsel for the petitioner, the State had, initially, commenced the work of construction of a percolation tank. Leveling of the land was made. Some soil was excavated from the land. As such, the State has spent a lot and now, it proposes to abandon the project. According to him, the petitioner is entitled for rental compensation.

3. In our view, the petitioner may avail an independent remedy, if he has suffered any loss by the activities of the State authorities. With these observations, the Contempt Petition stands disposed of.
