1. Heard.

2. This is an application seeking suspension of substantive sentence awarded by the learned Special Court, Hingoli, by order dated 04-03-2023 in Special Case Child No. 17 of 2014. Total eight accused persons were tried in the said case. The applicants are held guilty of the offences punishable under Sections 324 and 148 read with Section 149 of the Indian Penal Code. They are directed to suffer R I for one year and to pay fine of Rs.2000/- in default to suffer R I for three months for the offence punishable under Section 324. They are further directed suffer R I for six months and to pay fine of Rs.1000/- in default to suffer R I for one month for the offence punishable under Section 148 of the IPC.

3. Learned advocate for the applicants submits that during the trial the accused were on bail. There is no allegation that they have misused the liberty while they were on bail. Sentence is short sentence. On the date of conviction their substantive sentence are suspended. They have already paid the fine amount in the trial court. He further submits that looking to the pendency of the appeal, the appeal is not likely to be heard in near future and prays for suspension of substantive sentence.

4. Learned APP opposes the application saying that the applicants are convicted for the offences under the IPC.

5. In view of the submission and the fact that sentence is short sentence and the sentence is already suspended, this court finds that it would be in the interest of justice to suspend the substantive sentence pending the appeal. Therefore, the following order:-

ORDER

a] The criminal application stands allowed.
