CORAM : SANDIPKUMAR C. MORE, J.

DATE : 10th April, 2023

PER COURT :

1. Heard rival submissions.
2. The respective applicants are seeking condonation of respective delay periods mentioned in these applications for filing cross-objections, which appear to be caused due to their poor financial condition.
3. The learned counsel for the acquiring body and the learned A.G.P. strongly opposed the applications on the ground that, delay is not properly explained.
4. However, considering the statutory right of the applicants and for the reasons stated in the applications, the applications are allowed and the delay periods in filing the Cross-objections stand condoned subject to condition that the applicants shall not claim any interest for the aforesaid delay periods on enhanced compensation, if granted.

5. The Cross-objections be registered after removal of office objections, if any.

6. The applications are accordingly disposed of.

CIVIL APPLICATION NO. 228 OF 2015
CIVIL APPLICATION NO. 10274 OF 2018
CIVIL APPLICATION NO. 11944 OF 2017

7. Since the appellant – acquiring body has deposited entire amounts of compensation alongwith the interest, the applications are made absolute in terms of prayer clause – A/B and disposed of.
