CORAM : R. G. AVACHAT and
SANJAY A. DESHMUKH, JJ.

DATE : 02nd November, 2023.

Per Court:

. Heard.

2 Perused the FIR.

3 Since the overt acts have been attributed to applicant Nos.1 to 3, their application has already been withdrawn. So far as other applicants are concerned, they are sister-in-law and wife of brother-in-law of respondent No.2.

4 Although the learned counsel for respondent No.2 and the learned APP have strong objection on the ground that there are averments indicating the involvement of these applicants, as well, we find the allegations against them are general, vague and omnibus. Therefore, we find it to be a fit case to grant them relief. Therefore, the application is allowed in terms of prayer clauses (B) and (B-1) only to the extent of applicant Nos.4 and 5.
