DATE : 23rd JUNE, 2023

PER COURT :

1. Heard. Perused the F.I.R. and related police papers.

2. It appears that there are general allegations against Applicant No.2, husband of sister-in-law of the informant. We are, therefore, inclined to allow the application. In view of the same, criminal application of Applicant No.2 is allowed in terms of prayer clause [B].

3. There are somewhat allegations against Applicant No.1, sister-in-law of the informant. It is informed that she has been serving in Pune and therefore, unable to attend the trial Court regularly. The purpose would be served if the trial Court is directed to grant her permanent exemption and seek her presence only as and when exceptionally required.

4. With the above directions, criminal application stands disposed of.
