

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY BENCH AT AURANGABAD

CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO. 2794 OF 2023

Rajratan Uddhav Dipke

.. Applicant

Versus

The State of Maharashtra and another

.. Respondents

Mr. M. R. Wagh, Advocate for the Applicant.

Mr. A. R. Kale, APP for Respondent No. 1.

CORAM : R. G. AVACHAT AND KISHORE C. SANT, JJ.

DATED : 01st NOVEMBER, 2023.

PER COURT :-

. Heard learned advocate for the applicant.

2. We have perused the FIR and related papers. The FIR was recorded in the hospital. The name of the applicant in FIR is shown as Rajendra, but in R.C.C. No. 283/2021 it is shown as Rajratan. Difference in the name of the applicant attributes some overwriting. The statement of son of the informant reinforce the same. It is only change in the name of applicant – Rajratan who named as Rajendra in FIR.

3. Since the role of the applicant has been specified in the FIR and in the police statements, we find that no case is made out and even notice need not be issued.

4. The application stands dismissed.
