CORAM : R. G. AVACHAT and
SANJAY A. DESHMUKH, JJ.

DATE : 24th August, 2023.

Per Court:

. It appears that the petitioner has suffered wrist fracture. The discharge summary issued by the Civil Hospital, Beed vouched for the same. The petitioner being the victim of the crime, has every right to appear before the Trial Court and put forth his case. Let us hope that the Trial Court also hear him and frame charge for appropriate offence under the Indian Penal Code, if case is made out, necessarily after hearing the accused, as well.

2 With these observations, the criminal writ petition is disposed of.
