Though the applicants, being the legal representatives of deceased appellant Bharat Madhavrao Ingale have prayed for bringing themselves on record, but since the appellant-Bharat died after passing of the impugned judgment, the applicants had to file appeal. As such, there is no necessity to bring them on record and only permission to prosecute the appeal is granted to the present applicants.

The respective applicants-claimants, are seeking condonation of delay periods mentioned in these applications which appear to be caused due to their financial crisis.

The learned AGP strongly opposed the applications on the ground that the delay is not properly explained and there is also circulation delay.

However, considering the statutory right of the applicants, the delay periods, as mentioned in these applications, stand condoned subject to the condition that the applicants shall not claim any interest for the aforesaid periods of delay and also for the delay in circulating the matters belatedly.

The appeals be placed for admission after removal of office objections, if any.

Civil Applications are disposed of.
