

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
BENCH AT AURANGABAD

950 CIVIL APPLICATION NO.4197 OF 2020
IN FAST/35370/2018

TRYAMBAK NATTHU PAWAR
VERSUS
THE STATE OF MAHARASHTRA AND ORS

...

Advocate for Applicant : Mr Abhishek M.Hajare
AGP for Respondent Nos. 1 and 2/State : Mr S.J. Salgare

CORAM : S.G. CHAPALGAONKAR, J.
DATE : 24-02-2023

PER COURT :

1. The applicant seeks to condone the delay of 1409 days caused in filing the appeal challenging the Judgment and award passed by the 4th Jt. Civil Judge, Senior Division, Aurangabad in LAR No. 377/2001 dated 14-10-2014.

2. The learned advocate for the applicant submits that the delay caused in filing the appeal is unintentional. The applicant has not derived any advantage by making the delay. The land of the applicant has been compulsorily acquired. The applicant has good ground for enhancement of compensation. He would rely upon the orders passed by this Court in connected appeal arising out of the same award. Such orders are passed in Civil Application No. 9261/2019 in FAST No. 35261/2018 in the matter of Sitaram Nathu Pawar Vs. The State of Maharashtra and in Civil Application No. 8872/2019 in FAST No. 13687/2019 in the matter of Gulab Giri Narayan Giri and Anr. Vs. The State of Maharashtra and others. The delay of similar nature has been condoned by this Court under those orders.

3. The learned AGP appearing for respondent Nos. 1 and 2 does not dispute the position that the orders referred are relating to same award. The notice of the application is served upon the respondent No. 3, however, no appearance is caused.

4. Considering the aforesaid submissions, it is just and desirable to condone the delay with condition that the applicant shall not be entitled to claim the interest for the delayed period, in case his prayer for enhancement of compensation is accepted by this Court. The delay is condoned.

5. The civil application is allowed and disposed of.

6. The appeal be registered.
