PER COURT:

1. Heard the learned counsel for the parties in all these matters.

nomination of the candidates and the petitioners aggrieved thereby have filed the present writ petitions.

3. Mr. Ajit B. Kadethankar, learned Standing Counsel for Respondents / State Election Commission & Returning Officer has brought to my notice the full bench judgment of this court in case of Karmaveer Tulshiram Autade and Others Vs. State Election Commission Office and Others, 2021 (2) Mh.L.J. 349, at para 64 and 68 and submits that in case of acceptance / rejection of the nomination writ petition should not be entertained and granting relief claimed by setting aside the order of rejection is definitely a step to subserve the process of election and / or facilitate it's completion in the sense enunciated in Mohinder Singh Gill and explained in Ashok Kumar.

4. The learned counsel has also taken me through an order of this court dated 07.12.2022, passed in Writ Petition No.12359 of 2022, where this court relied upon the full bench judgment of Karmaveer, as referred supra, has refused to entertain writ petition challenging the acceptance / rejection of nomination form.

5. The election programme in the present case instant case is as follows:

The election programme of the panchayat declared on 06.10.2023. The dates of submission of nomination form was from 16.10.2023 to 20.10.2023. Date of scrutiny of nomination form was on 23.10.2023. Date of election is 05.11.2023.

6. Mr. Ajit B. Kadethankar, learned Standing Counsel for Respondents / State Election Commission & Returning Officer submits that in view of the full bench judgment the remedy of election petition under section 15 of the Maharashtra Village Panchayats Act, 1959 is available to the petitioners.

7. The election to the panchayat are at an advanced stage and the bar to entertain writ petition under Article 243-0 (b) of the Constitution of India read with section 15 and 15-A of the Maharashtra Village Panchayats Act, 1959 would be applicable, as has been held in the above refereed case of Karmaveer.

8. In view of the same, the writ petitions are disposed of with liberty to the petitioners to challenge the impugned orders before the appropriate authority in accordance with law. All contentions of the parties are kept open.
