2. The applicant has been arraigned as an accused on the sole reason of having together in bar with the deceased. However, after having drunk in the bar the accused and the deceased dispersed and then the incident happened. Only on the basis of this evidence, the applicant was arrested. However, nothing has been recovered from him to complete the chain of circumstances. Investigation has been completed. There are no antecedents to the discredit of the applicant. In view of that matter, keeping the applicant behind bar would serve no purpose. Hence the order.
