P.C.:

1. Heard the petitioner-in-person who has preferred the present proceeding thereby challenging the order of the learned Magistrate as pointed out in prayer clauses 'a' and 'b'. As far as the other prayers are concerned, we are not inclined to consider the same in the present proceeding since the matter is pending before the concerned Magistrate for trial.
2. We grant liberty to the petitioner to challenge the impugned order before the appropriate forum as the petitioner is having remedy in this regard. Considering the averments made in the present petition, we are not inclined to entertain the same since an alternate remedy is available for the petitioner to challenge such an order.

3. We grant liberty to the petitioner to approach the concerned Court by filing appropriate proceedings. The contentions raised in the present petition are kept open for the appropriate authority to consider the order challenged.

4. Accordingly, we dispose of this petition by granting liberty to the petitioner to challenge such order before the appropriate forum.
