CORAM : M. S. KARNIK, J.

DATE : JANUARY 19, 2023

P.C. :

- 1. Heard learned counsel for the applicant and learned APP for the State.
- 2. This is an application for pre-arrest bail in respect of C.R. No.852 of 2022 registered with Pandharpur City Police Station, for the offence punishable under Sections 306 read with 34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 ("IPC" for short) and under section 39 of the Maharashtra Money Lending (Regulation) Act, 2014.
- 3. The complaint was lodged by the wife of the deceased on 10/12/2022. It is alleged that the deceased was in need of money. The applicant who is a Doctor by profession lent a sum of Rs.70,000/- to the deceased. Due to covid-19 pandemic, the deceased could not repay the amount. The deceased was a fruit seller. It is alleged that the applicant used to take away box of mangoes from the deceased without making any payment. The deceased had informed the complainant that since he had taken money from the applicant, he can not demand payment for the box that the applicant forcibly took away. It is alleged that due to this financial difficulty and due to consistent harassment by the applicant for the repayment of money, the deceased took the extreme step of ending his life.

4. Considering the nature of the allegations, in my opinion, whether the ingredients of section 306 of IPC are satisfied for the offence alleged against the applicant, is the subject matter of the trial. The applicant had advanced money to the deceased which repayment was demanded by him. The custodial interrogation of the applicant is not necessary. The applicant can be granted pre-arrest bail. Hence, the following order.
