DATE : FEBRUARY 21, 2023

P.C. :

- 2. This is an application for bail by the applicant-Santosh @ Munna Hanmanth Karare in connection with C.R. No.846 of 2017 dated 01/11/2017 registered with Mohol Police Station, District Solapur for the offence punishable under Sections 302, 201 read with Section 120-B of the Indian Penal Code, 1860.
- 3. The investigation is complete and the charge-sheet has been filed on 22/01/2018. The applicant was arrested on 27/10/2017. The applicant is in custody for more than 5 years and 3 months. The trial has not yet commenced and even the charge is not framed. The trial is likely to take a long time to conclude. However, it is necessary to impose stringent conditions while releasing the applicant on bail.

4. So far as the materials against the applicant is concerned, the present matter rests primarily on the circumstantial evidence. There is recovery of a chocolate colour wallet at the instance of the applicant. There is no direct evidence. The prosecution case rests on the theory of last seen together. It is stated that the deceased and the applicant were good friends and having financial dealings. Considering that the applicant is in custody for more than 5 years and 3 months with no possibility of the trial commencing and concluding anytime soon, the nature of the accusations coupled with the materials have to be balanced with the applicant's right to a speedy trial.

5. Taking an overall view of the matter, the applicant can be released on bail. The co-accused has been released on bail, though the applicant cannot claim parity.
