CORAM : R. D. DHANUKA &
GAURI GODSE, JJ.

DATED : 2 MAY, 2023

P.C. :-

1. These matters were on board from time to time alleging disobedience of orders passed by this Court. On 26th April 2023 this Court made a request to the learned Advocate General to look into the matter personally and make a statement as to which plot would be allotted to the Petitioners, more particularly because issue of eligibility is no more pending.

2. Learned Advocate General on instructions states that all these Petitioners in this Contempt Petition would be issued letters of allotment in respect of the plot identified for them within one week from today and after carrying out and after completing the survey would hand over possession of these plots to the Petitioners without fail. Statement is accepted.

3. Learned Advocate General for the Respondent tenders copy of the letter dated 28th April 2023 from the Desk Officer, State Government addressed to the Collector (Rehabilitation). Letter is taken on record. In view of the statement made by the Advocate General on instructions, we do not propose to initiate any proceedings under the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971 against the Contemnors. Contempt Petitions are accordingly disposed of.

4. However, the matter shall be placed on board for reporting compliance on 12th June, 2023. It is made clear that in case the statement made by the learned Advocate General is not complied with for any reasons, the Petitioner would be at liberty to apply for restoration of these Contempt Petitions.

5. We appreciate the efforts taken by the learned Advocate General in obtaining approvals from the authorities for issuance of the letters of allotment in favour of these Petitioners within one week from today and also having agreed to hand over possession within a period of two weeks thereafter.

6. Upon handing over possession of the plots mentioned in the letter dated 28th April, 2023, the concerned authority to record the names of the allottees in the Mutation record within six weeks thereafter.

7. Parties to act on the authenticated copy of this order.
