CORAM : N.R. BORKAR, J.

DATED : 27 FEBRUARY 2023

P.C. :-

. This Court, on 30 October 2021, in Anticipatory Bail Application No. 2507 of 2019 alongwith other connected matters filed by the present applicants and other co-accused passed the following order:

“5. Today, the learned APP on instructions of the Investigating Officer, who is present in the Court state that the investigation has progressed but since she has newly joined in the investigation, in order to culminate the same, request for attendance to be granted to the applicants so that the investigation can be completed and the charge-sheet be filed. On the earlier occasions, when the applicants were admitted to protection, some attendance was granted in the year 2019. In the wake of the new material which must have come during the course of investigation, it is incumbent that the applicants shall attend the police station and co-operate with the investigation, since there are 7 different applicants / accused, all of them shall report to the Investigating Officer on 15th November 2021 between 10 a.m to 1.00 p.m and after marking their presence, the Investigating Officer shall assign different dates to each of the applicants/accused for their appearance in the very same week and as per her direction, the applicants shall report to the police station.”

2. The learned counsel for the applicants submits that pursuant to the above order, the applicants are attending the concerned police station every week, since last more than one year. It is submitted that considering the facts and circumstances the abovesaid condition may be relaxed.
3. The learned APP on instructions submits that investigation is over.
4. As the investigation is over the condition to attend the police station is hereby relaxed.
5. Both the interim applications are disposed of.
