3. It appears that the applicant was unable to avail of cash bail, nor was he able to furnish surety as directed, considering his financial condition. Infact, no extension is warranted, since the applicant has not availed of the cash bail given by this Court to him. It appears that extension is sought, as the trial Court is insisting on the same. The learned Trial Court ought not to have sought for extension of time.

4. Accordingly, the trial Court is directed to release the applicant on cash bail in the sum of Rs.25,000/- as directed by this Court vide order dated 3rd October, 2019.

5. On his release, the applicant, within a period of six weeks, to furnish P.R. Bond in the sum of Rs.25,000/-, with one or more sureties in the like amount.

6. As soon as, cash bail is furnished, the same be accepted by the trial Court.

7. Rest of the conditions imposed vide order dated 3rd October, 2019, to remain as it is.

8. Application is accordingly, disposed of.

9. All concerned to act on the authenticated copy of this order.
