P. C.

. Heard. There is a blank space appearing in the second sentence of the paragraph 9 of the Application, which has not been filled up.

2. Considering the overall pendency of the Appeals, and the fact that no special ground whatsoever has been put forth by the Appellant, we do not think that it would be possible for this Court to grant any priority for final hearing to the Appellant, over and above, the other Appeals pending before this Court. The Application is therefore rejected. However, liberty is granted to the Appellant to move this Court for final hearing after six months.
