for Petitioner.

CORAM: MADHAV J. JAMDAR, J.
DATE : 9th FEBRUARY 2023

P.C.:

1. Heard Mr. D.R. Singh, learned counsel appearing for the Applicant.
2. Applicant – Gauri Pannalal Prajapati is the original Respondent in the respective Civil Revision Applications (hereinafter “original Respondent”). By order dated 6th March 2018 passed by the learned Single Judge, all the Civil Revision Applications were dismissed and stay was granted for a period of ten weeks.
3. These Interim applications are taken out by the original Respondent seeking prayer to withdraw the arrears of rent deposited by the respective Applicants in this Court as per the said order dated 6th March 2018.
4. Learned Single Judge by order dated 8th July 2022 passed in these Interim Applications issued notice to the Respondents and made the same returnable on 5th August 2022. On 5th August 2022, learned counsel of the original Respondent informed the Court that respective suit premises are demolished and therefore, it is not possible to serve the Respondent in the Interim Application i.e. the original Applicants in respective Civil Revision Applications. Learned Single Judge by order dated 5th August 2022 permitted the learned Advocate of the Applicant in Interim Application i.e. original Respondent to serve copies of the applications on the Advocates who have represented the original applicants in respective Civil Revision Applications. The learned Advocate appearing for the original Respondent states that accordingly all the Advocates who have appeared for original Applicants in Civil Revision Applications are served and tenders affidavit of service. The same is taken on record. Despite service none appears for the original Applicants.

5. For the reasons set out in the Interim Applications, the same are allowed in terms of prayer clauses (a) and (b). Interim Applications are disposed of in above terms with no order as to costs.
