

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CRIMINAL APPEAL NO. 268 OF 2017

A. Navinchandra Steels Ltd. ...Appellant vs.
Bhuwalka Steel Industries Ltd. and Ors. ...Respondents

Mr. S. P Pandey - Advocate for the Appellant
Mr. Mahesh Heliya – Representative for the Appellant present in-person
Mr. Jugal Kanani - Advocate for the Respondents
Mr. Ankit Bhuwalka – Director of Respondent present in-person

CORAM : S. M. MODAK, J.

DATE : 03rd APRIL, 2023

P. C. :-

1. It is submitted on behalf of the learned Advocate for the Appellant that matter is settled in between the parties, and in view of that Appellant wants to withdraw this appeal.
2. Mr. Mahesh Heliya, representative of the Appellant-Company is present.
3. The Respondent may not having any objection. In view of that appeal is disposed of as not pressed. Necessary court fees be refunded as per Rules.

4. The Respondents who are alive are at liberty to request the trial court for withdrawal of the cash amount which they have deposited before the trial court by way of cash bail. The trial court to allow them withdrawal, if the amount is still lying in the court, as per rules.

[S. M. MODAK, J.]