CORAM : M. S. KARNIK, J.

DATE : FEBRUARY 9, 2023

P.C. :

1. Heard learned counsel for the applicants and learned APP.
2. These are the applications for bail in respect of C.R.No. 185 of 2021 dated 25/04/2021 registered with M.H.B Colony Police Station for the offence punishable under sections 304, 307, 325, 324, 323, 34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860.

3. The applicant- Shahbuddin Sadik Ansari is the father of the applicant Altaf in the connected bail application. The applicants are accused for causing death of the informant's son. It is alleged that on 25/04/2021, the informant's son committed theft in the house of the applicants. The applicants chased him. They caught hold of the informant's son and assaulted him on his legs. Applicant- Altaf informed the police. After police arrived, the applicants and the police took the injured to the hospital. After receiving first aid, the informant's son was discharged. The informant's son went home on his own, on the same day. The father of the deceased in the FIR has stated that the deceased was alcoholic and was in the habit of going out at night. The medical report on the date of the assault indicates that there is no history of any head injury. The victim died on 03/05/2021. Thus the charge against the applicants under section 304 of IPC was added. On the date of the assault, there is no history of any head injury and even the victim was discharged from the hospital on the very same day. Almost after 7 to 8 days, when the victim is reported dead, medical opinion reflects that he suffered head injury. Prima facie, having regard to the distance of time from the date of his discharge from the hospital after the alleged assault and materials on record, it would not be possible to attribute the head injury to the present applicants. The applicants are in custody since 27/04/2021, for a period of more than 1 year and 9 months. There are no criminal antecedents reported against the applicants. The investigation is complete. The charge-sheet is filed. The trial is likely to take considerable time to conclude. Considering the nature of the accusations, the applicants can be enlarged on bail. Hence, the following order.
