members subjected her to mental and physical cruelty for not meeting their unlawful demand of dowry. She claims that the Applicant and his family members sent her to her matrimonial home prior to lockdown and that they have refused to allow her to cohabit. She has also alleged that the Applicant is having illicit relation with other woman.

4. The material on record prima facie indicates that in view of the matrimonial dispute between both the parties, the first informant has been staying at her parental home since the year 2019. The FIR has been lodged in the year 2021 in respect of the incident which had occurred in the year 2014. Considering this aspect, as well as the nature of the accusations levelled against the Applicant, in my considered view, this is a fit case for exercising discretion under Section 438 of Cr.P.C. Hence, the application is allowed on the following terms and conditions:-

(i) In the event of arrest of the Applicant in Crime No.625 of 2022 registered with MIDC Police Station, the Applicant be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twentyfive Thousand Only) with one or two sureties in the like amount, to the satisfaction of the Investigation Officer.
