N.R. BORKAR, JJ.

DATED : 19th DECEMBER 2023

P.C. :-

The original complainant who lodged the First Information Report dated 5th February 2023 (FIR) registered with Kashimira Police Station for offences under Sections 498A, 323, 504, 506 r/w. 34 of Indian Penal Code has preferred this Petition for quashing the said FIR.

2. The Petitioner contends that she has no objection for quashing the said FIR. She is residing with the Respondent Nos.1 and 2. The Affidavit sworn by the Petitioner has been annexed to this Petition, wherein she has stated that FIR was lodged as she was misled by some persons and she has no objection for quashing the said FIR.

3. Respondent No.1/husband is present in Court. He has reiterated the contentions of the Petitioner. He submitted that he is residing with the Petitioner and there is no dispute of whatsoever nature between them. Petitioner and Respondent Nos.1 and 2 would reside together.

4. Considering the fact that the FIR was registered on account of some matrimonial differences and since the complainant has no objection for quashing the same, the relief sought in the Petition can be allowed.
