CORAM : AMIT BORKAR, J.

DATED : FEBRUARY 17, 2023

P.C.:

1. Both the parties to the writ petition are present in Court. Learned advocates have tendered consent terms signed by both parties. Both parties state that the contents of the consent terms have been explained to them and they have understood implications of the consent terms. They state that the consent terms are arrived at without any force or coercion. Both parties who are present in Court agree that they will abide by the consent terms produced on record. The consent terms are taken on record and marked 'X' for identification.

2. The writ petition stands disposed of in pursuance of the consent terms. No costs.

3. Parties and Courts to act on an authenticated copy of this order.
