The above numbered Interim Applications (St.) is listed on the board of Registrar for third time for supplying copies. Already four weeks time was granted. However, despite of granting four weeks time the Advocate for the Applicant has not supplied copies for issuing notice to the Respondent No.1.

Here reference to Chapter VII of the Bombay High Court, Appellate Side Rules, 1960 [for short "Rules"] may be conveniently made. It states about Processes, Process fees, Printing charges, Security for costs and other procedure after admission etc.

failure to prosecute.

The prescribed time to supply copies provided under Rules 1960 has been expired. 04 weeks time was granted, but all in vain. The matter is lying ideally without any progress as learned Advocate for the applicant has not taken any steps. However, instead of passing order of dismissal outrightly, it would be just and proper to give one opportunity to supply the necessary copies.

In turn, two weeks time is granted (Excluding Christmas Vacation) with directions to supply necessary copies without fail. On failure, Interim Applications (ST) will stand dismissed against Respondents without further reference to the Court of Registrar.
