which are mentioned in the FIR. The FIR reveals that the Applicant is residing with her parents since the year 2017. She lodged the FIR on 17.03.2022 alleging that she was subjected to physical and mental cruelty and that her in laws have not handed over her Stridhan, and have misappropriated the same. Apprehending his arrest, the Applicant filed an application for pre-arrest bail which was allowed by the learned Sessions Judge, vide order dated 13th July, 2022.

4. The applicant has sought cancellation of bail on the ground that her Stridhan is not yet received. Learned APP states that the Respondent No.2 and other co-accused were duly interrogated and that the Stridhan mentioned in the FIR could not be recovered. Learned APP further states that the investigation is completed and chargesheet will be filed within a week. Learned APP states that the presence of the Applicant is not required for the purpose of further investigation.

5. Having perused the entire record, and considering the reasons stated in the order, as well as the other material on record, in my considered view, no case is made out for cancellation of bail.

Application is dismissed.
