mandate of the Arbitral Tribunal has been extended by consent of both the parties by a period of one year from the date of said order. That period expired in November 2022. However, as per Section 29(A) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act read with Section 29(A) (4) and (5) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, the Court may extend the mandate after the expiry of the mandate. This is upon an application being made by any of the parties and the application being granted for sufficient cause on terms and conditions imposed by this Court.

4. Accordingly, the leave sought for in the Interim Application is granted.

5. In view of the fact that the evidence before the Arbitral Tribunal is over and the final arguments, the following order is passed :

(i) The mandate of the learned Arbitrator is extended by a period of six months for hearing arguments of the parties and passing of the Award thereupon.

(ii) The Interim Application is accordingly disposed of.
