- Mr. Arfan Sait, APP for the State/Respondent.

CORAM : SARANG V. KOTWAL, J.

DATE : 11th OCTOBER, 2023

P.C. :

1. The Applicant was the original accused in Summary Criminal Case No.1088 of 2017 before the Judicial Magistrate First Class, Nashik Road. The prosecution was for dishonour of cheque dated 16/06/2017 for amount of Rs.1,00,000/-. It was given by way of part payment in respect of leave and license agreement. The Respondent No.2 is the original complainant and was the owner of the premises.

2. At the conclusion of the trial, the learned Trial Judge vide Judgment and Order dated 17/03/2020 convicted the Applicant for commission of offence punishable u/s 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. He was sentenced to suffer rigorous imprisonment for six months and was directed to pay compensation of Rs.1,20,000/- and in default to suffer simple imprisonment for three months.

3. The Applicant challenged that order by way of Criminal Appeal No.98 of 2020 before the Additional Sessions Judge, Nashik. The said Appeal was dismissed vide order dated 18/09/2021. Therefore, the Applicant has preferred the present Criminal Revision Application.

4. There were other proceedings between the Applicant and the Respondent No.2 as well as between the Applicant and the Respondent No.2's mother. Those proceedings were similar in nature of dishonour of cheque. During pendency of this Revision Application, the Applicant has deposited the consolidated amount before this Court. In view of this, the parties have agreed to settle the matter. Learned counsel for the Applicant submits that in view of the settlement permission be granted to compound the offence.

5. Learned counsel for the Respondent No.2 has tendered an affidavit. It is mentioned in the said affidavit that Applicant has deposited the entire compensation amount and therefore permission be granted to compound the offence and further permission be granted to Respondent No.2 to withdraw the compensation amount.

6. Considering that the matter is settled between the parties, permission can be granted to compound the offence and further permission can be granted to the Respondent No.2 to withdraw the compensation amount.

7. When the Court raised the question of deposit of cost, learned counsel submitted that his business has badly suffered and he is in a bad financial condition. With great difficulty, he could arrange to deposit the compensation amount. He further submitted that his father has recently undergone a brain surgery, that has caused heavy expenses. Therefore, the Applicant is in no position to pay the cost as he would require some more funds for post-operative care and treatment of his father.

8. Considering these submissions, on humanitarian grounds, I am not imposing any cost on the Applicant.

9. Hence, the following order :

ORDER

- (i) The order dated 17/03/2020 passed by the Judicial Magistrate First Class, Nashik Road, in Summary Criminal Case No.1088 of 2017 as well as the order dated 18/09/2021 passed by the Additional Sessions Judge, Nashik, in Criminal Appeal No.98 of 2020 are set aside.

- (ii) The offence is permitted to be compounded.
- (iii) The Applicant is acquitted.
- (iv) The Respondent No.2 is permitted to withdraw the amount of compensation, which the Applicant has deposited in this Court, as per rules and procedure.
- (v) With these directions, the Revision Application along with its Interim Application are disposed of.
