CORAM: BHARATI DANGRE, J.
DATED : 18th APRIL 2023

P.C:-

1 On expressing my disinclination to entertain the Interim Applications seeking suspension of sentence and release of the applicant on bail, learned counsel seek permission to withdraw the Interim Applications.

 Learned counsel would however, submit that the Appeal which is admitted, would take considerable time for hearing, and as on date, the appellant has undergone five years 6 months of incarceration and he has been sentenced to undergo RI for 10 years.

He, therefore, request for fixing the Appeal for hearing by a fixed date.

Considering the aforesaid request, in the backdrop of the fact that more than half of the sentence has been undergone by the appellant, and since the R & P and paper book is also received in the Registry, I therefore, direct listing of the Appeal for final hearing on 27/6/2023.

2 Learned counsel for the appellant as well as the counsel for respondent no.2 and the learned APP shall collect the paper book from the Registry.
