CORAM: N.J.JAMADAR, J.

DATE : 4 SEPTEMBER 2023

P.C.

1. Heard the learned Counsel for the parties.
2. These applications are preferred for pre-arrest bail in connection with C.R.No.212 of 2023 registered with Malegaon Police Station, Pune for the offences punishable under Sections 328, 366, 394, 343, 504, 506 read with Sections 34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860.

3. The indictment against the applicants is that the first informant was enticed away by the applicant – Kiran on 27 April 2023 and made her to board a car at Kavahagaj ST stand. The Applicant – Satish, brother in law of applicant – Kiran, was in the said car. The applicants took the first informant to Alandi. The Applicant – Sagar joined them. The first informant further alleged that the applicant – Kiran gave her water laced with intoxicant and stupefying substance. The first informant became unconscious. The Applicant – Kiran took her to the house of the applicant – Sagar and confined her in a room. The Applicant – Kiran allegedly assaulted her. She was relieved of a mobile phone handset and five grams gold chain. The Applicant – Kiran also told her that he had solemnized betrothal ceremony with her while she was unconscious.

4. It appears that the first informant was traced and initially she did not make any allegation against the applicants and stated that she was in a relationship with the applicant – Kiran. Later on, the first informant lodged a report with the allegations that on account of threats administered by the applicant – Kiran, she had not stated the true facts.

5. The learned Counsel for the Applicants submitted that the first informant, who is a major, was in a relationship with the applicant – Kiran and they had voluntarily solemnized the betrothal. At the instance of the father of the first informant, the applicants are falsely prosecuted.

6. The learned APP invited the attention of the Court to a statement of the priest who solemnized the betrothal ceremony. It indicates that the first informant and the applicant – Kiran had been his place to solemnize marriage, but the priest having realized that the applicant – Kiran had not yet attained 21 years of age, declined to solemnize the marriage and, therefore, they went through the betrothal ceremony.

7. Prima facie, in view of the aforesaid statement of the first informant, the allegations against the Applicants – Sagar and Satish for the offences punishable under Sections 366 and 394 of IPC do not seem to have been prima facie made out. At the highest, the role of assault and relieving the first informant of mobile phone and gold chain can be attributable to applicant – Kiran. The statement of priest that the applicant – Kiran and the first informant had come to his place and he had solemnized the betrothal ceremony, prima facie, denies the first informant's version. Since in the FIR itself, the first informant stated that initially she did not implicate the applicant – Kiran as well, I am inclined to grant interim protection to Kiran and allow the applications of Satish and Sagar.

7. Hence, the following order :
