2 As regards restoration of the Petition which was dismissed for default is concerned, learned counsel for the Petitioner tenders apology for not remaining present. Even the application for restoration has not been diligently prosecuted. It was ultimately placed under the caption “For Dismissal” and that time the learned counsel for the Petitioner appeared to argue the matter. However, considering the apology so tendered, both the Interim Applications are allowed.

3 Writ Petition is restored to file.

4 Amendment be carried out to the Petition forthwith.
